Still don't know what I was waiting for,
and my time is running wild in dead-end streets,
and everytime I thought I got it made it seems the taste is not so sweet.

So I turn myself to face me
But I've never caught a glimpse.
How the others may see the fakers,
I'm much too fast to take that test . .

Changes, turn and face the strange, changes.
Don't wanna be a richer man.
Changes, turn and face the strange, changes.
Just gonna have to be a different man.
Time may change me, but I can't trace time.

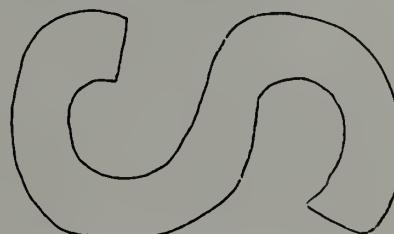

I watch the ripples change the sides,
but never leave the stream of warm permanence.
So the days float through my eyes,
but still the days seem the same.

And these children that you spit on,
as they try to change their world.
Are immune to your consultations
They're quite aware of what they're going through . .

Changes, turn and face the strange, changes.
Don't tell them to grow up and out of it.
Changes, turn and face the strange, changes.
Where the shame you left is up to an accident.
Time may change me, but I can't trace time.

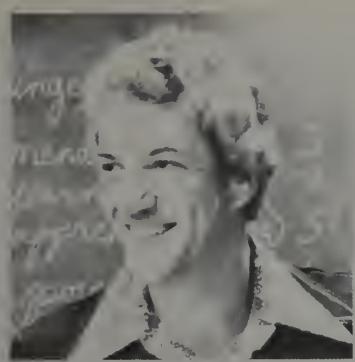

Strange fascination has hit me.
On changes are taking the place I'm going to.
Changes, turn and face the strange, changes.
Oh look out you rock and rollers.
Changes, turn and face the strange, changes.
Pretty soon now you're gonna get older.
Time may change me, but I can't trace time.
I say that time may change me, but I can't trace time.

SENIOR AUCTION 1988

The December 1987 Senior Auction was a great success! The afternoon was highlighted by bargains on such items as stuffed animals, Celtic's tickets, pottery, and a wonderful painting by Mr. Kowalski of Norwell's victory in the super bowl. As usual, Mr. Swartz, Mr. Emerson and, of course, Mr. Mott proved to be perfect hosts. Fun was had by all!

DONE TO DEATH

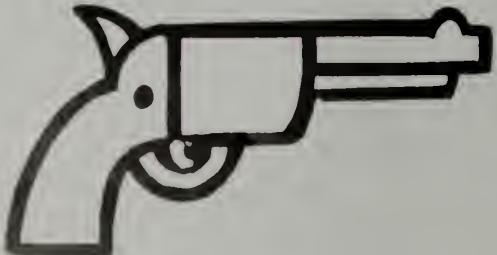

Well, if you ask me . . .

It was a night of comedy, mystery, and murder. Directed by Carol Beal, it starred Jennifer Hennigan, Steven Ballerini, J.C. This year's football team won more games than any team in the history of the school. The first unit scored 39 touchdowns while allowing only 9. Their Super Bowl victory over Whitman-Hanson made them Eastern Mass Division IV champions. The team was highlighted by a fast and aggressive defensive team lead by Seniors Eric Davies, Bryan Frankel, Derek Amorelli, Mark Goldman, Corey Macdonald and Robert Miner. Senior Peter Ferraro started on offense. The team had a dominant running attack that allowed them to overpower all opponents.

The football team defeated Hanover on Thanksgiving Day after a spirited pep rally, thus qualifying for the 1987 Superbowl. Once again sacks, tackles and touchdowns proved to be the power of Norwell as they defeated the Whitman Hanson Panthers and won the Division 4 championship.

This years field hockey team, captained by Sandra Elliott, Heather McGowan, and Maura Cassidy, ended their season with smiles. Despite a good effort and great attitudes, the team was not able to do as well as expected in such a competitive league. Offensive players Bethan Maloney and Annie Geoghegan made the all-star team. Defensively, 104 goalie Heather McGowan was a great help and will be very promising. We look forward to a great season next year.

The 1987 senior boy soccer players completed the most successful four straight years in Norwell's history. Qualifying for the state tournament in three out of four years, Norwell established itself as a powerful force in the South Shore League. Finishing their final season at 9-4-3, the team qualified for post-season play only to lose a tough overtime battle against Sharon. The team was led by their three all-league players: Mike Sweeney, and co-captains Paul Flaherty and Ned Flaherty.

The 1987 N.H.S. girls soccer team was the most successful team in the 11 year history of the Norwell Girls Soccer program. It was not only successful in terms of wins and losses, but also in team unity. There was a "special chemistry" among teammates- a special feeling that they were a team and not just a bunch of individuals. With a record of 14-4, the team was the first ever to make the State Soccer Tourney. They won their first tourney game against D.S. in a record breaking 10 overtimes on a bitter cold 30° day with a 15 m.p.h. wind blowing. They lost the second game to the eventual State Champion Foxboro team. A feeling of pride has finally enveloped the now highly respected and successful N.H.S. girls soccer program.

The 1987 boys cross country team finished at 8-2, winning the SSL small school division for the third year in a row. In addition, they placed fourth in the State Meet, their highest finish since 1972 led by four All-League runners.

"Well isn't that special?" King Frankel and Queen Basler

The 1987 Homecoming Dance was a night not to be forgotten, as Brian Frankel and Susan Basler were crowned King and Queen. The music of KISS108's DJ was a great way to top off the day, after Norwell soundly defeated Scituate in the big Homecoming game.

Front Row: K. Boden, M. Goughan, J. DePari, D. Carnes, K. Nixon, T. Flaherty. Second Row: C. Basler, C. Kittredge, A. Nelson, A. Schmidt, S. Granai, D. Bogni, K. Kelly, J. Manning.

TELLING WILDE TALES

N.H.S drama opened the 1987-88 season with the production of Telling Wilde Tales, a compilation of seven Oscar Wilde fairy tales. Under the direction of Carol Beal, the play proved itself a challenge to the fifteen cast members, as it broke away from the traditional genre performed at N.H.S. The cast and crew came up with a unique and creative interpretation of Wilde's playlets which impressed all who attended. Overall, the show was a great success for both the participants and the audience.

Not now, Tracy, I have a headache.

The boys' winter track team compiled a record of 3-6 competing in the highly competitive Tri-County League. ITALY

Put your head on my shoulder . . .

In spring of 1985, 18 Latin students ventured to Italy along with Mrs. Call, Mrs. Dunn, and Mrs. Macdonald. We will never forget Mario and Rosella, the gondolas in Venice and the discos in Florence, Capri in the rain, the pool and shower/steam room at the Sorrento Palace, gambling for Lira, and of course the grandeur of Rome and sunbathing on Trevi Fountain.

Where did we go shopping when we went to Italy?

The walls are closing in!

Is this Rome or Hollywood?

EGG BABIES

On December 15th, Dr. Farrington delivered egg babies to all the senior psychology students. The day before delivery, the students were required to make themselves look pregnant throughout the school day. It was a rewarding experience for all who participated.

TALENT SHOW

To think that this is the last year that we will have to drag ourselves out of bed and into home room brings about both feelings of ~~ecstasy~~^s, and in a way, loss. Ecstasy because we will no longer follow a day whatever rotation; loss, because the familiar routine, even though monotonous, was somehow comforting because of its lack of unknowns. Walking through these crowded corridors made us feel both safe and secure. All changes on an afternoon in June. ~~the~~

It might rain. It may not. There could be a cool spring breeze blowing in and among the stands as Mr. Anthony leads the band through the unendingness of Pomp and Circumstance. However, the setting is not nearly as important as the event. The blue and white clad seniors march along the spike-pocked surface of the track, take with the left, shake with the right, and continue on to their respective positions upon the field facing friends and family.

And maybe, as they later carve for themselves a niche to hold their things, they might take up their copy of this yearbook and blow the dust from its cover. They will turn to their favorite pages, the ones that have been dog-eared, and read the inscriptions left by well-missed friends. And maybe, ~~they~~ they might look back upon these past four years and say, "I guess Norwell was not that bad after all."

And so, thanks to the members of the staff without whom this book could not be. A special thank you to Mrs. Dunn for her time and patience with us and to the administration ~~whose~~ whose cooperation was essential. In addition, many thanks to our patrons and sponsors. Finally, thank you to the students of Norwell High School for appearing in this yearbook.

Amelia + ~~Nate~~
